The school expended for all purposes over $650, which included the cost of repainting the Sunday school room, and several worthy charitable causes.

At the annual business meeting of the First Baptist Church very gratifying reports were given of the work done in the various departments during the past year. Conditions are said to warrant the prediction of still greater work being done during the present year.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

A school of methods will be held at the Vermont Avenue Christian Church January 23-February 4, under the auspices of the Christian Churches of the District and vicinity. A large attendance is expected from the Christian churches and an invitation is extended to the Bible school workers of the other denominations to participate.

The lectures will be instrumental rather than inspirational and each student will be required to take notes. The faculty will be furnished by the Bible school Department of the American Christian Missionary Society. This department desires to make available for the Sunday school teachers and officers as definite instruction in training for their work as is now accessible to the teachers in this regular day schools.

Schools of method are being held in many cities in the United States and a similar one was conducted at the Ninth Street Christian Church, this city, a year ago. The latter was so successful that it was decided to call upon the American Christian Missionary Society for a school this winter. The courses offered at the Vermont Avenue school will, however, be entirely different from those of last year. The lectures will be comprehensive, embracing all phases of church work, and of interest and value to all church and Sunday school workers.

The gospel team of the Y. M. C. A. will visit the Fifteenth Street Christian Church tomorrow evening at 7:45, when Homer J. Councillor will speak and preach. The subject of his address will be "The Christian Who Failed."

The pastor of the H Street Christian Church, Rev. H. P. Louis, will return from Baltimore to occupy his pulpit tomorrow morning and in the evening N. E. Worley, superintendent of the Washington district, will speak at the Christian Endeavor Union, will speak in this church.

Rev. Mr. Lutz has been engaged for three weeks to reveal meeting for the Protestant Christian Church, Baltimore, and will continue the meetings for another week. The additions to the church during the special services numbered nineteen at last report.

ROMAN CATHOLIC.

Monsignor W. T. Russell will be the celebrant of the high mass which will be offered in St. Patrick's Church tomorrow at 11 o'clock. Two priests of the Holy Cross, Thomas J. O'Connell, will serve as his deacon and subdeacon. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. M. J. Egan. Two choirs will render the music of the mass and the choir of the church will sing the hymn, "Hail to the Chief."

Vespers will be chanted at 4 o'clock in the evening at the church, and will be the usual devotions in honor of the Good Shepherd. Monsignor Russell will officiate at the latter service and preach the sermon.

During the week evening prayers will be sung every afternoon at 5 o'clock by the Sanctuary Choir. On Friday evening the devotions will begin at 4:30 p. m. and take the form of the "Holy Hour of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament."

A report on the support of the Indian missions by Rev. Wm. H. Ketcham, director of the bureau of Indian Affairs, has just been made and shows that in 1915 there was contributed $26,053, while in 1914 the amount was $25,583.

Cardinal Gibbons is at the head of the board of negro and Indian missions and always has taken a deep interest in the work among the negroes and the Indians. He has, on several occasions, made strong pleas for aid to the mission and for the extension of the work.

DR. CLARK TO GIVE ADDRESS.
